PROPOSALS. DEOPOSALS FOR MAIL BAGS.

POSTOFICE DEPARTMENT,
Sealed proposals will be received at this Department until 12 o'clock noon, the EIGHTEENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1878, for fur-EENTH DAY UF NOVEMBER, 1878, for furmishing, by contract, for four years, from the first day of July, 1875, such quantities of Leather Mail Pouches as may, from time to time, be required and ordered; such pouches to conform, in every respect, to the samples on exhibition in this Department, and in the post offices at Boston,
Hartford, New York, Philadelphia, Uncinnati, Louisville, St. Louis and Chicago.
Specifications of the construction and materials of these samples will be furnished, on application to the Second Assistant Postmaster General.
Bidders, before submitting proposals, should therefore carefully examine such samples and or these samples with the large and, on application to the Second Assistant Postmaster General.

Bidders, before submitting proposals, should therefore carefully examine such samples and compare them with the specifications referred to. The label cases, which are to be attached to such pouches by the contractor, will be furnished to him for that purpose by the Department.

All the leather mail pouches contracted for are to be deliverable at the risk and expense of the contractor, and at such times, and in such quantities, as may be required and ordered at the post offices in the following places, viz.: Boston, Massachusetts; New York and New York; Philadelphis, Pennsylvania; Washington, District of Columbia, Cincinnati, Ohie; St. Louiz, Missouri, and Chicago, Illinois. They are to be rigidly inspected before delivery at the place of their manufacture; and none of them found to be inferior to the sample, in any respect, will be accepted or paid for.

The average number of such pouches required will probably not exceed ten thousand annually. But the Postmaster General will reserve the right to order more or less than that number, as the wants and interests of the service may seem to him to demand.

The bids will be opened, verified and announced in this Department on the EIGHTEBNTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1875, beginning at noon, and the Postmaster General will decide thereon within five days thereafter.

The Postmaster General hereby reserves the right to reject any or all the bids received under this advertisement if, in his judgment, the interests of the Department may thereby be promoted. The accepted bidder must, within twenty days after the receipt of the contract for his signature, eduly execute the same, giving a bond, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, with sureties satisfactory to the Postmaster General conditioned for the faithful and proper performance of the contract; and for a faiture on the part of the contract to comply with the contract he and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture of the f to conform there is a scaled this advertisement.

Every proposal should be inclosed in a scaled envelope, indoreed "Proposals for Mail Bags," and be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C."
